R U L E S

OF THE

W H I G C L U B.

I. THIS Club to consist of one hundred members.

II. That the members shall dine together eight times a year, on the first ~~Monday~~ in every month, excepting July, August, September, and October.

III. That every candidate for admission into this Club, not present at this or the former meeting held for the establishment of the Whig Club, shall be proposed by one member, and seconded by another, and the name, title, or profession, and place of abode of such candidate shall be entered in a book by the secretary, and at the next meeting of the society ballotted for; three negatives to preclude.

IV. That a President and six Stewards shall be nominated for each dinner, the first stewards to be John Frost Widmore, Thomas Lowten, William Henry Crowder, and John Bellamy, Esquires.

V. That John Gregory, Esq. be treasurer to the Society, for the first year, and Mr. Edward Hall, secretary.

VI. That at the meeting in the month of May, in each year, a treasurer and secretary shall be appointed for the ensuing year, and at the ensuing meeting the former treasurer shall adjust his accounts, and pay the balance, if any, into the hands of his successor.

VII. That the members now constituting the Club, and every person hereafter becoming a member thereof, shall, on admission, pay into the hands of the treasurer, Two Pounds, Twelve Shillings and Sixpence, as his subscription, for the purpose of defraying the expence of the several meetings; the said subscription to be collected annually under such penalties, on default of payment, as shall hereafter be adopted by the Club.

VIII. That upon a requisition in writing, subscribed by seven members at least, to the president, stating the conduct of any member to have been inconsistent with the spirit of the principles he engaged to support on entering into this society, the secretary shall send to the accused member a copy of the charge exhibited against him, together with a summons requiring his attendance at the next meeting, to answer it, and shall also issue special summonses to all the members to attend at the same time to take into consideration such charges, and upon the same being discussed, in case the majority of members present shall, by ballot, agree to exclude the accused member, he shall be expelled accordingly.

IX. That a dinner shall be provided by the stewards for each meeting, to be on table at half past four o'clock precisely, and that the stewards provide wine accordingly.

X. That the expences to be incurred² by this society at each meeting, shall be defrayed by the treasurer upon receiving an order for that purpose signed by two or more of the stewards.

XI. That the secretary shall remind every member by letter, of the day of each meeting, by sending the same addressed to his usual place of residence; and also shall summons extraordinary meetings in like manner from time to time, on receiving a requisition for that purpose signed by seven members at least.

XII. That all additions or alterations to these Rules shall be proposed and seconded at a meeting of this Club, and entered into a book by the secretary; and at the next meeting the same shall be confirmed or rejected by a majority of the members then present, such meeting not to consist of less than fifty members. Notice of the alterations or additions proposed, to be given by the Secretary in the summons for the meeting.

XIII. That every person immediately upon his admission into this club, shall subscribe his name to these Rules.

November 8th. 1784.

XIV. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this Club.

XV. Resolved, That no member shall hereafter be permitted to propose or name more than one person as a member of this Club at any future meeting, until every member then present shall have proposed or named one person also, or shall then or there neglect, or decline so to do.

January 17th. 1785.

XVI. Resolved, That no smaller number than three negatives shall in any case reject any person proposed; that unless thirty members shall be present, the ballot shall not take place; and if more than thirty shall be present, the negative shall be in the proportion of one present in every ten, in the room.

February 7th. 1785.

XVII. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this Club.

XVIII. Resolved, That the ballot for members shall take place immediately after four o'clock, thirty members being present; and the ballot for any alteration or addition to the rules as soon as may be after the first toast.

XIX. Resolved, That every gentleman, admitted a member of this Club, do pay, or cause to be paid, into the hands of the treasurer, his subscription of two pounds, twelve shillings, and sixpence, on, or before the next meeting of the Club, otherwise he will no longer be considered a member thereof.

May 2d. 1785.

XX. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this Club.

December, 5th. 1785.

XXI. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this Club.

May 1st. 1786.

XXII. Resolved, That three trustees be appointed for this Club, viz. George Byng, John Frost Widmore, and Thomas Skinner, Esqrs. and that on the death or resignation of a trustee, the Club, at their next meeting, shall appoint a successor.

XXIII. That when the treasurer is in possession of cash, over and above one hundred pounds, sufficient to purchase one hundred pounds stock, in the three per cents. consolidated annuities, he shall then pay it into the hands of the trustees, for them to lay out in the above stock.

XXIV. That after the treasurer has paid into the hands of the trustees a sufficient sum of money to purchase eighteen hundred pounds stock, then the interest of the same, and the surplus of the annual subscription, after paying the expences of the Club, shall be applied, from time to time, to such purposes as a majority of the Club shall direct, fifty members being present.

XXV. That the trustees annually receive the interest of the stock, and pay it into the hands of the treasurer.

XXVI. Resolved, That one hundred members be added to this club.

XXVII. Resolved, That the club do, in future, meet on the first Tuesday in the month, instead of Monday.

April 3d. 1787.

XXVIII. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this club.

March 4th. 1788.

XXIX. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this club.

June 9th. 1789.

XXX. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this club.

November 10th. 1789.

XXXI. Resolved unamioufly, That Nathaniel Newnham, Esq. M. P. Alderman of the City of London, be appointed a trustee in the room of George Byng, Esq. Deceased.

December 8th. 1789.

XXXII. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this club.

February 9th. 1790.

XXXIII. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this club.

January 11th. 1791.

XXXIV. Resolved unamioufly, That members of the Whig Club of Ireland, be admitted to the meeting of this club as honorary members; being introduced by one or more members of this club.

(x)

June 7th. 1791.

XXXV. Resolved, That fifty members be added to this club.

March 5th, 1799.

XXXVI. That upon a requisition, signed by thirty members, for a special ballot of any person duly proposed and seconded, to become a member, the ballot for such person be had immediately after dinner, by carrying the balloting box round the table.—Notice of such special ballot to be given in the usual circular letter.

November 6th, 1799.

XXXVII. That no ballot shall take place unless thirty members are present, and three negatives shall reject.—If more than thirty members shall ballot, the negatives shall be one in ten of the members balloting.

XXXVIII. That every Gentleman admitted a member of this club shall pay Two pounds Twelve Shillings and Sixpence as his subscription, and shall pay the like sum Annually, so long as he shall continue a member, to the Treasurer for the time being, towards the general purposes of the Club.
